

DR.MED. KARIN GEFFERT

BIO

Karin is a medical doctor with postgraduate training in public health. She works as a research associate at the Chair of Public Health and Health Services Research at the LMU Munich, Germany, with a strong interest in food environment and systems, public health service research and questions around knowledge translation between science-policy and practice and sustainability. In addition to that, she has gained work experience with the World Health Organization, Regional Office for Europe, in the area of WASH in institutional settings and implementation research for non-communicable diseases in Eastern Europe and Central Asia, and worked several years as a project manager for an NGO.

As lead of WP1, and co-lead of WP3 and 8, her work focuses on political determinants addressing the double burden of malnutrition in South Africa and on integrated knowledge translation.
