

MAXWELL FENI

BIO

Maxwell Feni is a qualified social auxiliary worker with extensive experience as a research field worker, HIV case manager and research mental health counsellor.

He will be involved in data collection, qualitative interviews, focus group discussion, stakeholder engagement and in -field coordination of activities of work packages 4,5

He is skilled in building working relationship with external partners, community members for project entry. His ability to communicate in different languages and diversity of understanding different cultures is remarkable.

He is involved in the FoodSAMSA and Metabolic Syndrome Risk in Adolescents studies in the Western Cape South Africa

Email: Maxwell.Feni@mrc.ac.za
