

SANDILE LUKE

BIO

Sandile Luke is a fieldworker with considerable experience in quantitative research. He conducted research for several quantitative research studies. He has been a research fieldworker for multi-country studies- SMART2D (Self-Management and Reciprocal approach for Type 2 Diabetes), PURE (Perspective Urban Rural Epidemiology) study, SINAKO - Households in HIV care, DTG, SADPP.

He will be bringing his experience from various research studies to FOODSAMSA and Metabolic Syndrome risk in adolescence. His main activities will be recruiting, data collection, and data capturing for Work Package 4, and 5.

He is based at SAMRC – Western Cape.